SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE AGREEMENT

This Settlement and Release Agreement (“Agreement”) is entered into by and among Cathy Yanni (the “Trustee”), in her capacity as the Trustee of, and acting on behalf of, the PG&E Fire Victim Trust (the “FVT”); and McKinsey & Company, Inc. United States (“McKinsey”). The Trustee and McKinsey are referred to herein collectively as the “Parties.”

Recitals

A. On January 29, 2019, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company (together, “PG&E” or “Debtors”) filed voluntary chapter 11 petitions in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California (the “Bankruptcy Proceeding”), Hon. Dennis Montali presiding (the “Bankruptcy Court”).

B. On June 20, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Confirming Debtors’ and Shareholder Proponents’ Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization Dated June 19, 2020 (such plan of reorganization, the “Plan”), and the Plan became effective on July 1, 2020.

C. The FVT was established by the Plan to, among other things, administer, process, settle, resolve, satisfy, and pay certain claims arising out of the 2015 Butte Fire, the 2017 North Bay Fires, and the 2018 Camp Fire, and prosecute or settle the Assigned Rights and Causes of Action (as defined in section 1.8 of the Plan).

D. As part of the Assigned Rights and Causes of Action, the Plan provided for PG&E’s assignment to the FVT of “any and all rights, claims, causes of action, and defenses related thereto relating directly or indirectly to any of the Fires that the Debtors may have against . . . consultants.”

E. The Parties mediated before the Hon. Jay C. Gandhi (Ret.), including two in-person sessions on September 9, 2022 and December 7, 2022.

F. The FVT conducted extensive research and investigation of the facts and law prior to these mediations to assess the strengths and weaknesses of potential claims against McKinsey. In conducting this analysis, the FVT had access to and considered, among other things, (1) the work of the Butte County District Attorney’s office, which took testimony from nearly 100 witnesses, reviewed approximately 1,600 exhibits, and gathered extensive other documentary evidence, (2) evidence available from PG&E’s federal probation proceedings about the Butte Fire, the North Bay Fires, and the Camp Fire, (3) evidence available from PG&E regulatory proceedings, including regulatory investigations relating to the Butte Fire, the North Bay Fires, and the Camp Fire, (4) evidence available from CAL FIRE and other investigators relating to the Butte Fire, the North Bay Fires, and the Camp Fire, (5) documentary and testimonial evidence obtained from PG&E in connection with pre-bankruptcy litigation relating to the Butte Fire, the North Bay Fires, and the Camp Fire, (6) evidence obtained from PG&E during the bankruptcy proceedings, and (7) materials obtained by the FVT or its predecessor via discovery in the bankruptcy proceedings, including from and about vendors and consultants of PG&E.

G. After evaluating the evidence, the FVT found no evidence of a causal connection between McKinsey’s work and the Butte Fire or North Bay Fires. The FVT determined that it might possess potential claims against McKinsey arising from the Camp Fire based on McKinsey's contracts with PG&E and work pursuant to those contracts via the Assigned Rights and Causes of Action from PG&E to the FVT, but that McKinsey possesses numerous factual and legal defenses to any such claims.

H. The Parties recognize that litigation over the Assigned Rights and Causes of Action could take several years to resolve, excluding appeals and the potential for retrials. The Parties further agree that, in the event litigation proceeded beyond a motion to dismiss/demurrer, fees and costs for discovery and trial likely would exceed tens of millions of dollars for each side, excluding appeals and the potential for retrials. Litigation would mean potentially no recovery for fire victims and a diminution of the corpus of the Trust by funding Litigation, and any recovery would be delayed by years and diminished by significant fees and costs.

I. McKinsey disputes and denies that it has any responsibility or liability for the Assigned Rights and Causes of Action, and more broadly rejects any allegation that it is responsible for the fires at issue.

J. The FVT recognizes McKinsey for its swift and good faith resolution of this matter, which will avoid the significant time and costs of protracted litigation for all concerned, including the fire victims and their families.

K. In light of the likely substantial costs and uncertainties of litigation, and the foregoing recitals, which form a material part of this Agreement, the Parties have agreed to fully and finally settle and resolve all disputes that exist or may exist between them related to the Assigned Rights and Causes of Action, the Fires (as defined in section 1.86 of the Plan), and any Fire Claims (as defined in section 1.78 of the Plan), and thereby dispose of all claims that have been or could have been raised on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

Agreement

In consideration of the mutual compromises, covenants, and agreements set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, the Parties desire to, and hereby do, resolve their differences related to the Assigned Rights and Causes of Action and agree as follows:

1. Settlement Amount

In consideration of the agreements and obligations contained in this Agreement, including the complete settlement of all disputes that exist or may exist between the Parties related to the Assigned Rights and Causes of Action, the Fires, and any Fire Claims, and the full and complete mutual release of the dispute and any and all Released FVT Claims and Released McKinsey Claims as set forth in Paragraph 3 below, McKinsey will cause to be paid the total lump sum of twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000.00) (the "Settlement Amount") within sixty (60) days of the Effective Date (defined below), with the Settlement Amount to be paid to the FVT subject to the terms herein.

2. Effective Date

The Effective Date of this Agreement shall be the date on which full execution of this Agreement by the Parties occurs.

3. Release of Claims

“Released FVT Claims” means any and all rights, claims, causes of action, or theories of recovery held at any point from the beginning of time to the Effective Date of the Agreement which have been or could have been alleged or asserted by any FVT Releasing Party (defined below) against any McKinsey Released Party (defined below), including, but not limited to, both known claims and Unknown FVT Claims (defined below), claims related to the Assigned Rights and Causes of Action, the Fires, and any Fire Claim, including but not limited to any such claim based on contract, law or equity, including indemnity or contribution, and any and all other rights, claims, causes of action, or theories of recovery PG&E assigned to the FVT under the Plan or that the FVT or the Trustee has or may have against any McKinsey Released Party.

“Released McKinsey Claims” means any and all rights, claims, causes of action, or theories of recovery held at any point from the beginning of time to the Effective Date of the Agreement which have been or could have been alleged or asserted by any McKinsey Releasing Party (defined below) against any FVT Released Party (defined below), including, but not limited to, both known claims and Unknown McKinsey Claims (defined below), claims related to the Assigned Rights and Causes of Action, the Fires, and any Fire Claim, including but not limited to any such claim based on contract, law or equity, including indemnity or contribution, and any and all other rights, claims, causes of action, or theories of recovery of McKinsey that McKinsey has or may have against the FVT or the Trustee under the Plan.

- a. “FVT Releasing Party” means: the FVT, the Trustee, and any other person or entity purporting to act on behalf of the FVT or the Trustee.
- b. “McKinsey Releasing Party” means: McKinsey and any of its current, former, and future parents, subsidiaries, predecessors, successors, affiliated companies, and corporations, and any person or entity purporting to act on behalf of McKinsey.
- c. “McKinsey Released Party” means: McKinsey and any of its current, former, and future parents, subsidiaries, predecessors, successors, affiliated companies, and corporations, and any of its current, former, and future officers, directors, managers, employees, associates, consultants, general or limited partners, principals, shareholders, insurers, co-insurers, and reinsurers – in their capacity as liability insurers of McKinsey & Company, Inc. United States – attorneys, advisors, representatives, agents, or assigns.
- d. “FVT Released Party” means: the FVT, the Trustee, and their counsel of record.

- e. “Unknown FVT Claims” means any and all claims related to the Assigned Rights and Causes of Action, Fires, and any Fire Claim, including but not limited to any such claim based on contract, law or equity, including indemnity or contribution, and any and all other rights, claims, causes of action, or theories of recovery assigned by PG&E to the FVT, or that the FVT or the Trustee has or may have against any McKinsey Released Party, which were alleged or could have been alleged against McKinsey or any McKinsey Released Party by the FVT, including, but not limited to, claims which the FVT Releasing Party does not know or suspect to exist in its favor at the time of the release of the McKinsey Released Party, including, but not limited to, claims which, if known by the FVT Releasing Party, might have affected the FVT and the Trustee’s decision to settle, to settle on the terms of the Agreement, and to release the McKinsey Released Party, as well as claims addressed in Section 5 of this Agreement.
- f. “Unknown McKinsey Claims” means any and all claims related to the Assigned Rights and Causes of Action, Fires, and any Fire Claim, including but not limited to any such claim based on contract, law or equity, including indemnity or contribution, and any and all other rights, claims, causes of action, or theory of recovery of McKinsey that McKinsey has or may have against the FVT or the Trustee under the Plan and any and all other rights, claims, causes of action, or theories of recovery which were alleged or could have been alleged against the FVT or any FVT Released Party by McKinsey, including, but not limited to, claims which the McKinsey Releasing Party does not know or suspect to exist in its favor at the time of the release of the FVT Released Party, including, but not limited to, claims which, if known by the McKinsey Releasing Party, might have affected McKinsey’s decision to settle, to settle on the terms of the Agreement, and to release the FVT Released Party, as well as claims addressed in Section 5 of this Agreement.
- g. Under no circumstances will the FVT, the Trustee, or any FVT Releasing Party be permitted to seek, recover, recoup, assess, claim, or receive—directly or indirectly—any distribution or payment of additional monies or relief from McKinsey or any McKinsey Released Party for Released FVT Claims. Among other things, the Settlement Amount shall fully satisfy any and all claims by or on behalf of each FVT Releasing Party for fees, costs, and expenses of any kind that an FVT Releasing Party has asserted or could have asserted against any McKinsey Released Party, including, but not limited to, fees, costs, and expenses arising out of or related to the Assigned Rights and Causes of Action, the mediations, the negotiation and execution of a term sheet, the negotiation and execution of the Agreement, and any steps needed to execute and implement the Agreement (subject to reasonable fees and expenses recoverable consistent with the indemnity granted to the FVT and the Trustee by McKinsey under this Agreement pursuant to Section 7).

- h. Under no circumstances will McKinsey or any McKinsey Releasing Party be permitted to seek additional monies or relief from the FVT or the Trustee or any FVT Released Party for Released McKinsey Claims. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit McKinsey from taking actions contemplated under Section 7 herein, provided however, that under no circumstances will McKinsey or any McKinsey Releasing Party be permitted to, directly or indirectly, seek, recover, recoup, assess, claim, or receive any distribution or payment from the FVT or the Trustee on account of the Released McKinsey Claims, including for attorneys' fees and litigation costs associated with the Released McKinsey Claims.
- i. Under no circumstances will the FVT, the Trustee, or any other FVT Releasing Party allege, pursue relief, or assert liability against any other person or entity on the theory that such person or entity aided and abetted, conspired with, is jointly and severally liable under any other legal or equitable theory with, or otherwise can be held financially responsible for any conduct by McKinsey or any McKinsey Released Party; the FVT and the Trustee, on behalf of themselves and any FVT Releasing Party, hereby disclaim and release any such potential right. In the event a person or entity attempts to assert or asserts cross-claims or otherwise seeks to join or joins McKinsey or any other McKinsey Released Party in litigation or other proceedings instituted by any FVT Releasing Party, the FVT and Trustee shall expressly disclaim in a binding stipulation that the FVT and Trustee do not seek relief against any such person or entity to the extent McKinsey or any McKinsey Released Party could or otherwise would be liable but for this Agreement.

4. No Assignment of Released Claims

The FVT and the Trustee represent and warrant that there has been, and will be, no assignment or other transfer of any interest in any Released FVT Claims which they may have against any McKinsey Released Party. If, contrary to this representation and warranty, the FVT and the Trustee assign or have assigned such rights to any other person or entity, or lack the authority to grant a full and final release of the Released FVT Claims, the FVT and the Trustee will defend, indemnify, and hold harmless any McKinsey Released Party with respect to any action or claim brought by any assignee of any interest assigned contrary to this representation and warranty or based on any right that the FVT and the Trustee represented and warranted that they had the authority to fully and finally release.

McKinsey represents and warrants that there has been, and will be, no assignment or other transfer of any interest in any Released McKinsey Claims which it may have against any FVT Released Party. If, contrary to this representation and warranty, McKinsey assigns or has assigned such rights to any other person or entity, or lacks the authority to grant a full and final release of the Released McKinsey Claims, McKinsey will defend, indemnify, and hold harmless any FVT Released Party with respect to any action or claim brought by any assignee of any interest assigned contrary to this representation and warranty or based on any right that McKinsey represented and warranted that it had the authority to fully and finally release. For the avoidance of doubt, McKinsey's rights to pursue claims (whether by Proof of Claim or otherwise) against PG&E for recovery against PG&E are preserved. The foregoing proviso and preservation of rights shall in no way limit the releases and protective provisions contained in this Agreement.

5. Waiver of California Civil Code Section 1542

- a. With respect to the Released FVT Claims, the Parties agree that, upon the FVT's receipt of the Settlement Amount, the FVT Releasing Party shall waive the provisions, rights, and benefits of California Civil Code section 1542 (or any analogue of or counterpart to section 1542 under any state or federal law);
- b. With respect to the Released McKinsey Claims, the Parties agree that, upon the FVT's receipt of the Settlement Amount, the McKinsey Releasing Party shall waive the provisions, rights, and benefits of California Civil Code section 1542 (or any analogue of or counterpart to section 1542 under any state or federal law);
- c. California Civil Code section 1542 reads as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

- d. Each FVT Releasing Party acknowledges that it may discover facts in addition to or different from those now known or believed to be true by them with respect to the Released FVT Claims, but it is the intention of the Parties to completely, fully, finally, and forever compromise, settle, release, and extinguish any and all of the Released FVT Claims known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or absolute, accrued or unaccrued, apparent or unapparent, which now exist, or heretofore existed, or may hereafter exist, and without regard to the subsequent discovery of additional or different facts.

- e. Each McKinsey Releasing Party acknowledges that it may discover facts in addition to or different from those now known or believed to be true by them with respect to the Released McKinsey Claims, but it is the intention of the Parties to completely, fully, finally, and forever compromise, settle, release, and extinguish any and all of the Released McKinsey Claims known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or absolute, accrued or unaccrued, apparent or unapparent, which now exist, or heretofore existed, or may hereafter exist, and without regard to the subsequent discovery of additional or different facts.

6. Disclosure/Confidentiality

a. The Parties agree that this Agreement is inadmissible (other than to enforce its terms notwithstanding any provisions of California Evidence Code §§ 1152, 1154, which may be enforced by a motion under California Code of Civil Procedure § 664.6 or by any other procedure permitted by law in the applicable state or federal court) under California and federal law as part of an offer to compromise.

b. This Agreement and its terms shall remain confidential until disclosed to the public. In the event the FVT determines it is in the best interest of its beneficiaries, the FVT may seek to maintain the fact and/or terms of this Agreement as confidential consistent with the Order on Motion of William B. Abrams Authorizing Discovery Regarding Administration of the Fire Victim Trust (Docket No. 12682) (the “Disclosure Order”). During the period when the Agreement or certain terms are confidential, the Parties can disclose the Agreement and such terms, in confidence, to their accountants, lawyers, or insurers, to regulators, to PG&E, or in accordance with a court order.

c. McKinsey shall have consent rights, not to be unreasonably withheld, over the content of all public communications by the FVT and the Trustee regarding this settlement and Agreement, except that the FVT and the Trustee shall disclose this Agreement and terms and conditions thereof in the manner required by and consistent with the Disclosure Order, understanding that such disclosure will be modeled after the last such submission and must comply with the Disclosure Order. The FVT, the Trustee, or any other Releasing Party and their counsel shall not disparage McKinsey.

7. Indemnification in the event of litigation between FVT and PG&E

In the event McKinsey’s pursuit of claims (whether by Proof of Claim or otherwise) against PG&E results in court proceedings relating to this Agreement (including the claims settled hereby) in which the FVT is named as a party, interested party, or the subject of a motion or other request for relief, then McKinsey will indemnify FVT for reasonable attorney’s fees, costs, or other expenses (collectively, “Court Costs”) incurred in connection with participating in such court proceedings subject to a cap of $175,000.00. The FVT shall notify McKinsey prior to incurring any such Court Costs.

8. Duty of Cooperation

The Parties shall at all times fully cooperate with each other and shall cause their respective agents and attorneys to cooperate in a prompt and timely manner in connection with the performance of all obligations under this Agreement.

9. Restoration of Rights

In the event that this Agreement becomes void, the Parties agree that this Agreement, including all of its terms, as well as any facts and circumstances surrounding the drafting or negotiations of this Agreement, shall not be used in connection with any court proceeding, litigation, dispute, or otherwise.

10. No Admissions of Wrongdoing or Liability

Notwithstanding anything contained herein, this Agreement shall not be construed as an admission by McKinsey or any other McKinsey Released Party of any liability whatsoever or any violation of any order, law, statute, duty, or contract whatsoever. It is also expressly agreed and acknowledged that neither the negotiation, execution, nor performance of any of the terms of this Agreement shall constitute or be construed as an admission by McKinsey or any other McKinsey Released Party of any liability or any fact or indication that any of the claims or charges alleged against McKinsey has any merit. The FVT has not determined that McKinsey or any other McKinsey Released Party engaged in any improper conduct in connection with any work for PG&E or any California wildfire, including but not limited to the Camp Fire, and McKinsey disputes and denies any wrongdoing whatsoever. The FVT and Trustee agree that neither they nor their representative(s) shall make any representation, statement, or proffer of evidence or argument to any court, tribunal, or third party intentionally suggesting that this settlement and Agreement constitute any such admission.

11. Joint Drafting

The language of this Agreement shall be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning and intent, and not strictly for or against any Party. In the event of a dispute about the interpretation of this Agreement, it shall be deemed to have been drafted by all Parties to this Agreement with the benefit of advice from independent counsel, and no Party or attorney for any Party shall urge otherwise, such as by arguing for an interpretation of an allegedly ambiguous term under the doctrine of contra proferentem.

12. Acknowledgement of Legal Advice

The Parties agree, acknowledge, represent, and warrant that each of them enters into this Agreement upon the independent legal advice of his, her, or its attorneys, and that each of them has read, fully understands, and voluntarily accepts the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

13. Headings

The Parties understand, agree, and acknowledge that all headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and do not create any separate legal rights in and of themselves.

14. Costs and Attorneys' Fees

Except as provided in Section 7, (a) the Parties shall each be responsible for their own attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses incurred by them in connection with the mediations and settlement, including the preparation, negotiation, drafting, execution, and implementation of this Agreement, and (b) each of the FVT, the Trustee, and McKinsey waives any and all claims against any other Party.

15. Inurement

The Parties agree that this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon, each of the Parties and their respective parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors and assigns, and the agents and other authorized representatives, beneficiaries, trustees, shareholders, officers, directors, employees, insurers, heirs, executors, partners, and joint venturers of any of the foregoing.

16. Amendment

No amendment, modification, or addition to this Agreement shall be valid unless it is in a writing executed by the Parties.

17. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of California, without regard to any principles of conflicts of laws.

18. No Waiver

No delay or failure by any Party to exercise its rights under this Agreement shall be construed to be a waiver thereof, unless memorialized by written instrument signed by the Parties. The agreed waiver of any covenant, condition, or agreement to be performed under this Agreement shall not be construed to be a continuing waiver of the same covenant, condition, or agreement, or the waiver of a different covenant, condition, or agreement. Furthermore, the agreed waiver of any breach of this Agreement shall not be considered to be the agreed waiver of a different or subsequent breach.

19. Integration

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties, and supersedes any and all prior or contemporaneous agreements, promises, representations, or understandings, written or oral, between them relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. Each Party represents that it has not relied on any representation not included in this Agreement, and that there are no other agreements, promises, representations, warranties, or understandings that shall be binding upon the Parties with respect to this subject matter unless contained in this Agreement. Each FVT Releasing Party and each McKinsey Releasing Party expressly agrees that this Agreement will remain valid and effective even if the facts they now believe to be true are later discovered to be false or different than what they now believe, and expressly assume the risk of any such difference.

20. Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same Agreement. For purposes of execution, facsimile signatures and signature pages sent through electronic mail shall be considered effective and binding.

21. Authority

Any individual signing this Agreement on behalf of any Party represents and warrants that he or she has full authority to do so.

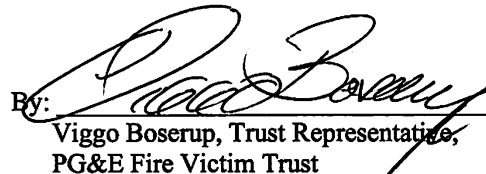

22. Dispute Resolution

Any dispute, claim, or controversy arising out of our relating to this settlement and Agreement or the breach, termination, enforcement, interpretation, or validity thereof, shall be resolved by confidential mediation before the Hon. Jay C. Gandhi (Ret.). In the event the Parties cannot resolve any such dispute via mediation, the Parties agree to submit the matter to binding confidential arbitration before the Hon. Jay C. Gandhi (Ret.) to be administered by JAMS pursuant to its Streamlined Arbitration Rules and Procedures in place at the time any such arbitration is demanded.

The Firms shall only look to the funds of the Trust for payment of Court Fees, Court Reporter Costs, Discovery Costs, Expert Costs, Mediator Costs, and Special Counsel Costs, and shall only look to the Proceeds, if any, for payment of any Contingency Fee(s) and reimbursement of any General Costs.

(m) For the avoidance of doubt, and notwithstanding any other provision of this Engagement Letter, all Court Fees, Court Reporter Costs, Discovery Costs, Expert Costs, Mediator Costs, Special Counsel Costs, and General Costs, shall be supported by documentation satisfactory to the Trustee, such documentation shall be timely delivered by the Firms, with further written explanation as requested by the Trustee or the Authorized Agent, and shall be subject to the Trustee's review and approval prior to being paid. The Trustee may dispute any invoice, statement of fees, request for reimbursement, or other request for costs, expenses, and/or fees submitted by the Firms, as provided in Section 4(b). The Trust shall have no obligation to reimburse the Firms nor any third party for any costs, expenses, or fees incurred in violation of the approval requirements set forth in this Section 2.

3. CONTINGENCY FEE.

(a) The Firms' compensation shall be calculated on a pure contingency basis, as set forth herein. As of any Calculation Date, subject to the limitations in Sections 3(c) to (d) below, with respect to the Net Proceeds received in connection with such Calculation Date, the Firms shall be entitled to a contingency fee (the "Contingency Fee") calculated on an incremental basis as follows under the applicable time period (each of Section 3(a)(i), (ii), and (iii) a "Time Period"):

- i. If there is a Settlement or Judgment on or prior to the date that is six months after the filing of a complaint or other commencement of an adversary proceeding, then with respect to the Net Proceeds from such Settlement or Judgment:
 1. 20% on the first $200 million of Net Proceeds; plus
 2. 18% on the next $100 million of Net Proceeds (over $200 million and up to and including $300 million of Net Proceeds); plus
 3. 16% on the next $100 million of Net Proceeds (over $300 million and up to and including $400 million of Net Proceeds); plus
 4. 14% on the next $100 million of Net Proceeds (over $400 million and up to and including $500 million of Net Proceeds); plus
 5. 12% on the portion of Net Proceeds over $500 million.
- ii. If there is a Settlement or Judgment more than six months after the filing of a complaint or other commencement of an adversary proceeding, but before jury selection commences or a non-jury trial or other final evidentiary hearing (such as an arbitration) commences, then with respect to the Net Proceeds from such Settlement or Judgment:
 1. 24% on the first $200 million of Net Proceeds; plus
 2. 21% on the next $100 million of Net Proceeds (over $200 million and up to and including $300 million of Net Proceeds); plus
 3. 19% on the next $100 million of Net Proceeds (over $300 million and up to and including $400 million of Net Proceeds); plus
 4. 16% on the next $100 million of Net Proceeds (over $400 million and up to and including $500 million of Net Proceeds); plus
 5. 14% on the portion of Net Proceeds over $500 million.
- iii. If there is a Settlement or Judgment on a date that is (i) more than six months after the filing of a complaint or other commencement of an adversary proceeding and (ii) on or after the day on which jury selection commences or a non-jury trial or other final evidentiary hearing (such as an arbitration) commences, then with respect to the Net Proceeds from such Settlement or Judgment:
 1. 30% on the first $200 million of Net Proceeds; plus
 2. 26% on the next $100 million of Net Proceeds (over $200 million and up to and including $300 million of Net Proceeds); plus
 3. 22% on the next $100 million of Net Proceeds (over $300 million and up to and including $400 million of Net Proceeds); plus
 4. 18% on the next $100 million of Net Proceeds (over $400 million and up to and including $500 million of Net Proceeds); plus
 5. 15% on the portion of Net Proceeds over $500 million.

(b) For the avoidance of doubt, neither (i) the Federal Settlement, nor (ii) any liens or offsets not relating to the McKinsey Claims, shall impact the calculation of the Contingency Fee under this Engagement Letter.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the date of occurrence of each Settlement or Judgment shall determine the Time Period to be used to calculate the Contingency Fee with respect to any gross sums originating from such Settlement or Judgment (regardless of the date on which such gross sums become Net Proceeds).

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, each Contingency Fee shall be calculated on a cumulative basis, such that Net Proceeds from any previous Calculation Date(s) shall be accounted for when determining the applicable contingency percentage. For example, if Net Proceeds as of the first Calculation Date equaled $150 million, then on the next Calculation Date, if additional Net Proceeds equaled $100 million, the Contingency Fee for the first $50 million of such $100 million would be based upon the contingency percentage set forth on line 1 of the applicable Time Period and the second $50 million of such $100 million would be based upon the contingency percentage set forth on line 2 of the applicable Time Period.

(e) The fees set forth in this Engagement Letter are not set by law but have been negotiated between attorney and client.

(f) The Firms shall prepare a statement of fees setting forth the amount of any Contingency Fee due or to become due as soon as practicable after any Calculation Date. The statement of fees shall be sent to the Trustee by mail to Two Embarcadero Center, Suite 1500, San Francisco, CA 94111 and by email to accounting@firevictimtrust.com with copies to pkellywemed@gmail.com and dmolton@brownrudnick.com. Any questions regarding the statement of fees should be brought to the attention of the Firms within a reasonable time. Provided that there is no dispute or pending question as to the amount set forth on the statement of fees, and subject to the limitations in Sections 3(c) to (d), above, the Contingency Fee shall be paid to the Firms within sixty (60) days after the Trust's receipt of the statement of fees.

(g) In the event that any Unresolved Indemnity Claims exist on any Calculation Date, the Trust shall make a determination of the amount of potential Unresolved Indemnity Sums, and shall deposit into a segregated account the amount of the Contingency Fee corresponding to such Unresolved Indemnity Sums and shall not release or withdraw any funds from that account other than (i) to pay the Firms any Contingency Fee due if the Trust determines that some or all of the Unresolved Indemnity Sums are no longer Unresolved Indemnity Sums and will not become Outstanding Fixed Indemnity Sums and/or (ii) to pay the indemnitee(s) if the Unresolved Indemnity Sums become Outstanding Fixed Indemnity Sums. For the avoidance of doubt, the Trust shall pay the Firms the Contingency Fee due with respect to any Net Proceeds received in connection with such Calculation Date in addition to any approved outstanding General Costs in accordance with this Engagement Letter.

(h) In the event the services of one or more of the Firms are terminated pursuant to Section 9 below, and such terminated Firm or Firms assert in writing a claim against the Trust for the reasonable value of their services rendered prior to such termination and/or for outstanding General Costs, then upon any Receipt of Proceeds Date, the Trust shall deposit into a segregated account an amount equal to the Contingency Fee and any approved outstanding General Costs that would, if not for the termination, be due to the terminated Firm or Firms under this Engagement Letter, and shall release funds in respect of such claim from that account to the terminated Firm or Firms to the extent (i) agreed in writing by the Trust and the terminated Firm or Firms, or (ii) determined pursuant to a resolution reached in accordance with the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Section 8 below. After making provision for the funds in accordance with the foregoing

(i) or (ii), any funds remaining in the segregated account shall be released to the Trust's general account. For the avoidance of doubt, no funds shall be disbursed from the segregated account except as provided in this Section 3(h).

4. PAYMENT TO FIRMS.

(a) Any fees due from the Trust to the Firms pursuant to this Engagement Letter will be split evenly and the Trust will pay 50% of such fees to each of Greenberg Gross LLP and Andrews & Thornton, A Law Corporation. Any reimbursement of approved costs shall be paid by the Trust to the Firm that invoiced the costs. The Trust shall have no obligation to make any payment hereunder to any other person, law firm or other third party. Invoices shall be remitted to the Trust at accounting@firevictimtrust.com with detailed supporting documentation to support the amounts set forth thereon.

(b) The Trustee may dispute any invoice, statement of fees, request for reimbursement, or other request for costs, expenses, and/or fees submitted by the Firms. The Trustee or the Authorized Agent shall notify the Firms' Agents of any such dispute along with a reasonably detailed description of the dispute ("Notice of Dispute"). Upon the Firms' receipt of a Notice of Dispute, the Trust and the Firms shall seek to resolve any such dispute expeditiously and in good faith for forty-five (45) days ("Initial Resolution Period"). If the Trust and the Firms have not resolved the dispute by the end of the Initial Resolution Period, then the Trust and the Firms shall resolve the dispute in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions set forth in Section 8 below. The parties hereto shall continue performing their respective obligations under this Engagement Letter during any such dispute, subject to the terms of this Engagement Letter.

5. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

The Firms recognize that certain of their partners, associates, and staff members may be provided with confidential and proprietary information belonging to the Trust ("Confidential Information"). The Firms shall not disclose to any third parties any Confidential Information obtained in the course of the Representation unless the Trust consents to such disclosure. Confidential Information will not include: (i) information made public other than as a result of breach of this Engagement Letter; (ii) information either or both of the Firms acquire from a third party with no known obligations of confidence regarding the information; or (iii) information already known to either or both of the Firms prior to disclosure by the Trust. If either or both of the Firms receive a request for disclosure of Confidential Information or are otherwise required by law to disclose any Confidential Information, the Firms will, to the extent practicable, notify the Trust of the disclosure request or requirement, and will discuss an appropriate response with the Trust. The Firms also agree to take reasonable steps to avoid the disclosure, obtain an appropriate protective order, or secure other safeguards to help preserve confidentiality.

6. RECORDS.

All materials prepared by the Firms for the Trust in connection with the Representation shall be the property of the Trust.

7. COOPERATION.

The Trust agrees that its authorized representatives will (i) be reasonably available to confer with the Firms upon request; (ii) provide the Firms with access to such documents and information as the Trust may possess relating to the Representation; (iii) disclose all facts and circumstances of which the Trust is aware that may bear upon the Firms' handling of the Representation; and (iv) otherwise assist the Firms' efforts as reasonably requested to do so by the Trustee or the Authorized Agent.

8. DISPUTE RESOLUTION.

The parties hereto agree that any dispute that arises under this Engagement Letter including but not limited to all claims and disputes regarding any Contingency Fee(s) or other payment(s) alleged to be owed by the Trust pursuant to this Engagement Letter, whether based on facts and circumstances existing at the time of termination or arising thereafter shall, in the first instance, be sought to be resolved by an alternative dispute resolution (“ADR”) process mutually agreeable to the parties as follows: the parties involved agree to meet and confer in good faith to agree upon and proceed with a mutually acceptable ADR process.

The parties further agree that any dispute that is not resolved by the ADR process shall be submitted to binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association, in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules. Such claims shall be heard by a panel of three arbitrators, to be chosen as follows: within fifteen (15) days after the commencement of arbitration, each party shall select one person to act as arbitrator; thereafter, the two individually selected arbitrators shall select a third arbitrator within ten days of their appointment. If the arbitrators selected by the parties are unable or fail to agree upon the third arbitrator, the third arbitrator shall be selected by the American Arbitration Association. The arbitration panel shall have the power to rule upon its own jurisdiction and authority. The place of arbitration shall be San Francisco, California, unless the parties agree in writing to a different location. Regardless of where the arbitration proceeding actually takes place, all aspects of the arbitration shall be governed by the laws of the State of California, without regard to its conflicts of law provisions that would apply the laws of another jurisdiction. The parties shall bear their own legal fees and costs in connection with any arbitration proceedings brought pursuant to this Section 8. The award of the arbitrators shall be accompanied by a reasoned opinion, and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitration panel may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. Except as may be required by law or to enforce an award, neither a party to an arbitration proceeding nor an arbitrator may disclose the existence, content, or results of any arbitration hereunder without the prior written consent of the parties to this Engagement Letter. The parties to this Engagement Letter acknowledge that by agreeing to this arbitration provision, they are giving up the right to litigate certain claims against each other, and important rights that would be available in litigation, including the right to trial by judge or jury, to extensive discovery and to appeal an adverse decision. The parties acknowledge that they have read and understand this arbitration provision, and that they voluntarily agree to binding arbitration in accordance with the foregoing.

This Engagement Letter shall be governed by the laws of the State of California, without regard to its conflicts of law provisions that would apply the laws of another jurisdiction.

9. TERMINATION.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Trust has the right to terminate this engagement at any time, for any reason or for no reason, effective upon delivery of written notice to the Firms’ Agents. In the event of termination by the Trust, the Firms shall provide cooperation in good faith in any transition, including return of materials provided to the Firms by the Trust and providing copies of all materials, including any work product, created under this Engagement Letter or in connection with the Representation. The Firms also have the right, subject to certain responsibilities under applicable ethical rules, to terminate this engagement by giving the Trust fifteen (15) days advance written notice if the Trust fails to cooperate with the Firms or if the Firms determine that continuing to represent the Trust would be unethical, impractical, or improper. In the event the Firms exercise such right of termination, the Firms shall provide cooperation in good faith in any transition, including return of materials provided to the Firms by the Trust and providing copies of all materials, including any work product, created under this Engagement Letter or in connection with the Representation.

10. INDEMNIFICATION.

The Firms acknowledge that the operation of the Trust is governed by a Trust Agreement, which provides for the indemnification of certain advisors and consultants to the Trust. Notwithstanding such provisions of the Trust Agreement, the Firms acknowledge and agree that, except as to Trust's indemnity obligations arising out of or related to the Trust's willful misconduct, bad faith, or fraud as finally judicially determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, the Trust shall not be obligated to satisfy any indemnity obligations if and to the extent that at the time a demand for indemnity is made and would otherwise be payable by the Trust, the amount of such indemnity claim exceeds the amount of maximum aggregate limit of liability insurance coverage then available to satisfy such indemnity claim at that time, which the Trust has represented to the Firms to be $80,000,000 less the amount of covered claims already paid or payable against such maximum aggregate limit of liability insurance coverage.

11. AGREEMENT APPLICABLE UNTIL CHANGED IN WRITING.

The scope of this Representation may be modified by the Trust at any time and from time to time by advance written notice to the Firms' Agents at their offices at Andrews & Thornton, LLC, 4701 Von Karman Avenue, Newport Beach, California 92660 and Greenberg Gross LLP, 650 Town Center Drive, Suite 1700, Costa Mesa, California 92626, or via email to aa@andrewsthornton.com and agreenberg@ggtriallaw.com. If the scope of this Representation is modified, this Engagement Letter will apply to such additional matters the Firms agree to undertake upon the Trust's behalf unless the parties hereto enter into an express written agreement reflecting an alternate arrangement.

12. ENTIRE AGREEMENT.

Effective as of January 1, 2022, this Engagement Letter contains the entire understanding between the Firms and the Trust relating to the services to be rendered by the Firms in connection with the Representation. Effective upon the execution of the New Engagement Letters, except as provided in Sections 5 [confidential information], 6 [records], 8 [dispute resolution], 10 [indemnification], and 12 [notices] of the Prior Engagement Letter, which Sections shall remain in effect, the Prior Engagement Letter shall terminate in all respects as of December 31, 2021 with respect to the services to be rendered by the Firms in connection with the Representation and the obligations of the Trust thereunder, and the provisions of this Engagement Letter shall govern exclusively the matters set forth herein; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trust shall pay hourly fees calculated based on the Adjusted Rate as defined in Section 1(i) of the Prior Engagement Letter and invoiced by the Firms, costs, and/or expenses, attributable to periods ending on or prior to December 31, 2021 in accordance with the terms of the Prior Engagement Letter.
